Four finalists were competed for first this weekend held at Memory Lanes in Minneapolis. Tim Reynolds advanced to the championship against, Dave Freeman won 227 - 213 for his first championship.

Champion Notes: Tim works in sales and has one child; Haley. Tim has been bowling for 23 years and currently bowls at Colonial Lanes in Rochester, Tim listed a 300 game and 805 series as his accomplishments. Tim was using a Nomad Pearl drilled by Scott Pohl of On-Track Cedarvale. People who have helped with his game are Ken Holets who got him started in 1987 and Scot Pohl for his coaching which turned him around this year. Tim also wanted to thank Scott for an excellent ball arsenal and Dave Freeman for all his support, also to Memory Lanes for hosting the ABT tournament. Plans for the money are more bowling balls. Closing comments were that he hopes more people start or continue to support tournaments, youth bowling and the spirit of bowling in general.
